He is the son of a philosophy professor and a lawyer, and his upbringing was steeped in intellectual curiosity and a love for storytelling. writing. It was during his time at college that he began to develop the unique voice and thematic concerns that would come to define his work. The Genesis of "Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close"

While "Everything Is Illuminated" cemented his reputation, it was "Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close," published in 2005, that propelled Jonathan Safran Foer into international stardom. The novel was a direct response to the September 11th terrorist attacks, a national trauma that deeply affected Foer, as it did so many others. Foer's motivation for writing "Extremely
