Verse 1: The Assurance of His Coming

"Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King. Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King. Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King.

Hallelujah, Hallelujah, we are going to see the King."

The "King" refers to Jesus Christ, and the act of "seeing the King" symbolizes His glorious return, often interpreted as the Second Coming or the ascension into heaven. The inclusion of "Hallelujah" is a direct expression of praise and thanksgiving, further amplifying the joyful anticipation.

Verse 2: The End of Suffering

"No more dying there, we are going to see the King. No more dying there, we are going to see the King. No more dying there, we are going to see the King.
Hallelujah, Hallelujah, we are going to see the King."

This verse shifts the focus to the eternal state and the relief from earthly tribulations. The Musical Foundation: Exploring the Chords

One of the reasons "Soon and Very Soon" is so beloved and widely performed is its relatively simple and accessible chord structure. Common Chord Progressions

The song is typically played in major keys, and the most common keys for "Soon and Very Soon chords" are C major, G major, and D major.
