Common types include leisure travelers (seeking relaxation or adventure), business travelers (for work), ecotourists (focused on nature), cultural tourists (interested in heritage), and adventure tourists (seeking thrills). Motivations range from escaping routine to personal growth, exploration, or fulfilling specific needs.
4	With so many options, how do people decide where to go and what to do when planning a trip?	Trip planning involves research! Travelers consider factors like budget, interests (beaches, history, adventure), desired experiences, safety, accessibility, and recommendations from friends, family, or online reviews. Digital tools, travel agents, and personal preferences all play a role in these decisions.
5	What's the future looking like for travel and tourism, especially with new technologies and changing attitudes?	The future of travel and tourism is dynamic. We're seeing a rise in sustainable and responsible travel, increased use of AI and VR for personalized experiences and planning, and a growing demand for authentic, local encounters.
