Choosing Your Search Criteria

The SOS business search typically offers several search options, allowing for flexibility and precision:

1. Business Name Search: This is the most common method. You can enter the exact name of the business or a portion of it. The system will then return a list of matching entities. It's advisable to search for variations of the name, as exact matches might be elusive due to minor differences in spelling or suffixes.
2. Control Number Search: Each registered business entity in Texas is assigned a unique control number. If you know this number, it provides the most direct and accurate way to find a specific business.
3. Registered Agent Name Search: You can also search by the name of a registered agent. This can be useful if you know who represents the business but are unsure of the exact business name.

Interpreting the Search Results

Once you initiate a search, the results page will display a list of potential matches. For each match, you'll typically see key information such as:

1. Entity Name: The official legal name of the business.
2. Control Number: The unique identifier for the entity.
3. Formation Date: When the business was legally established.
4. Entity Type: Such as Corporation, LLC, Partnership, etc.
5. Current Status: This is crucial. It will indicate if the entity is "In Good Standing," "Not In Good Standing," "Dissolved," or other relevant statuses.

Tips for Effective Texas SOS Business Searches

To maximize the efficiency and accuracy of your searches, consider these best practices:

5. Understand Entity Types: Familiarize yourself with the different types of business entities (e.g., S-Corp, C-Corp, LLC, LLP) as this can help you interpret the information you find.
6. Be Aware of Filing Delays: While the SOS strives for real-time updates, there can sometimes be a slight delay between a filing and its appearance in the online database.
7. Consider Professional Assistance: For complex due diligence or legal investigations, consider engaging a legal professional or a specialized business search service that can conduct more in-depth inquiries.

Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) and Court Records

In some cases, for deeper due diligence, searching criminal justice records or court dockets for civil litigation might be necessary. These are typically accessed through separate portals but can provide a more comprehensive picture.
