Preparing for the Board: Strategies and Tips

Now that you know what to study, let's talk about how to prepare effectively.

1. Build a Study Schedule

Don't try to cram everything in the week before. Create a realistic study schedule that breaks down the material over several weeks. Allocate specific times for each study area.

2. Utilize Available Resources

Your NCOs and Leaders: Your leadership is your greatest resource. Ask them for guidance, feedback, and practice questions. They have likely been through the board themselves and can offer invaluable insights. Previous SOM Winners: Connect with soldiers who have previously won the SOM board. They can share their experiences, study materials, and tips. The Internet: Reliable military websites, official Army publications, and reputable study group forums can be excellent sources of information. Be cautious of outdated or inaccurate information. Study Groups: Form a study group with fellow candidates. Practice asking and answering questions, quizzing each other on regulations, and providing constructive feedback.

3. Master the "Question and Answer" Format

The SOM board is largely an oral examination. Practice answering questions aloud. Anticipate Questions: Think about the types of questions that might be asked in each category. Practice with a Buddy: Have a battle buddy or mentor ask you questions and provide feedback on your delivery, clarity, and accuracy. Record Yourself: Sometimes, hearing yourself answer questions can reveal areas for improvement in your delivery and conciseness.

4. Conduct Mock Boards

This is crucial! Schedule mock boards with experienced NCOs or officers who can simulate the actual board environment. This will help you get comfortable with the pressure and identify any weaknesses in your knowledge or presentation.

5. Focus on Weaknesses

Be honest with yourself about your strengths and weaknesses. Dedicate extra time to the areas where you feel less confident.

6. Understand the "Why" Behind Everything

Don't just memorize facts. Understand the reasoning and purpose behind regulations, military history, and Army values. This allows you to articulate your answers with greater depth and conviction.

7. Prepare for the "Curveball" Questions

Sometimes, boards will ask situational or ethical questions designed to test your judgment and problem-solving skills. Think through potential scenarios and how you would respond, always adhering to Army values and regulations.

8. Get Enough Rest and Eat Well

On the day of the board, be well-rested and have a healthy meal. Being physically and mentally sharp is essential.

The Day of the Board: Final Touches

The preparation is done, now it's time to execute.

1. Arrive Early

Give yourself ample time to get to the location, find parking, and gather your thoughts. Being rushed will only add to your stress.

2. Double-Check Your Appearance

Before you enter the room, do a final check of your uniform, hair, and overall appearance. Everything should be perfect.

3. Breathe and Stay Calm

It's natural to be nervous, but deep breaths can help calm your nerves. Project confidence.

4. Listen Carefully to Each Question

Don't interrupt. Wait for the board member to finish speaking before you begin your answer.

5. Be Honest and Direct

If you don't know an answer, it's better to admit it and state that you will find out than to guess or fabricate information. You can say something like, "Sir/Ma'am, I am not certain of the exact regulation, but I will find out."

6. Maintain Eye Contact

When answering questions, make eye contact with the person asking them.

7. Thank the Board Members

At the conclusion of the board, thank each member for their time and consideration.
