6. Questions About the Company and Your Motivation

Employers want to see that you've done your research and are genuinely interested in their organization.

1. "Why are you interested in this Assistant Branch Manager position?"

Strategy: Connect your career aspirations with the opportunities the role offers. Highlight specific aspects of the company's values, culture, or market position that appeal to you. Show how this role aligns with your long-term career goals in banking and leadership.

2. "What do you know about our bank/credit union?"

Strategy: Thorough research is essential. Mention their mission statement, recent news, community involvement, product offerings, and any unique selling propositions. Show that you've invested time in understanding their business and how you can contribute.

Strategy: For strengths, choose those directly relevant to the ABM role (e.g., leadership, problem-solving, sales aptitude). For weaknesses, select something genuine but not detrimental to the role, and crucially, explain what you are doing to improve it. For instance, you might say, "I can sometimes be overly detail-oriented, which can slow down my initial review of tasks. To address this, I've been practicing setting time limits for initial reviews and focusing on the most critical aspects first."
