This article delves deep into the story behind "What Does the Fox Say?", exploring its origins, its astronomical rise to fame, the reasons behind its enduring appeal, and the lasting impact it had on both the music industry and internet culture. We'll unpack the lyrics, dissect the music video, and ponder the enduring question that launched a thousand memes: "What does the fox say, anyway?"

The Genesis of a Genius Idea: Ylvis and Their Humorous Approach

Before "What Does the Fox Say?", the Norwegian comedy duo Ylvis – comprised of brothers Vegard and Bård Ylvisåker – were already well-established in their native Norway. Known for their distinctive brand of surreal humor and musical parodies, they had a knack for creating catchy, often ridiculous, songs that poked fun at various aspects of life and music. Their previous hits like "Stonegod" and "Janym" showcased this talent, but nothing could have prepared them for the global storm that "What Does the Fox Say?" would unleash. The idea for the song reportedly stemmed from a challenge by their manager to create a song for their upcoming show, I kveld med Ylvis (Tonight with Ylvis). They wanted something catchy, something that would go viral, and something that was utterly absurd. As Vegard explained in interviews, they were inspired by the trend of electronic dance music (EDM) and wanted to create a track that was both a parody of the genre's often nonsensical lyrics and a genuine exploration of a silly question. The fox, a creature often shrouded in mystery and folklore, presented the perfect canvas for their brand of comedic experimentation.

From Norway to the World: The Explosive Rise of a Viral Hit

The music video for "What Does the Fox Say?" was released on YouTube in September 2013. It was an instant sensation. Within days, it had garnered millions of views. The video itself is a masterpiece of over-the-top production, featuring vibrant costumes, elaborate choreography, and a surreal narrative that perfectly complements the song's bizarre lyrics. The visual absurdity, combined with the infectious, repetitive melody and the hilariously nonsensical vocalizations the brothers invented for the fox, created an irresistible concoction. The song's catchiness was undeniable. Its simple, repetitive structure made it easy to remember and sing along to, even if you didn't understand a word of Norwegian. The internet, ever hungry for novelty, latched onto it with fervent enthusiasm. Social media platforms became flooded with users sharing the video, creating their own parodies, and discussing the song. It wasn't long before "What Does the Fox Say?" infiltrated mainstream media, from radio airplay to late-night talk shows. Celebrities were spotted singing it, and the hashtag #whatdoesthefoxsay trended globally. It was a perfect storm of internet virality, a testament to how a well-crafted, utterly unexpected piece of content could capture the world's attention.

Unpacking the Lyrics: A Symphony of Nonsense and Curious Questions

At the heart of the song's appeal lies its hilariously nonsensical lyrics. While the verses tell a story of searching for the fox and its elusive sound, the chorus explodes into a rapid-fire succession of made-up fox noises. These range from the familiar (though often inaccurate) "Ring-ding-ding-ding-dingeringeding!" and "Wa-pa-pa-pa-pa-pow!"

to the utterly bizarre and imaginative: * "Hatee-hatee-hatee-ho!" * "Joff-tchoff-tchoff-tchoff-tchoff-tchoff!" * "A-hee-ahee ha-hee!" * "Fraka-kaka-kaka-kaka-kow!" * "A-oo-oo-oo-ooo!" These invented sounds are the sonic embodiment of the song's playful anarchy. They are designed not to be understood but to be experienced, to be sung along with, and to provoke laughter. The genius lies in their sheer randomness and the energy with which they are delivered. It's a sonic adventure that taps into our childlike fascination with the unknown. Beyond the iconic chorus, the verses also contribute to the song's charm. They paint a picture of curiosity and exploration: "I want to know what does the fox say Mother Mary, mother Mary, can you tell me what does the fox say?" This opening sets the stage for the central mystery, a question that, in its simplicity, resonates with a universal sense of wonder. The lyrics playfully touch upon the elusive nature of foxes and their perceived mystery in folklore. They are not profound, but they are effective in their mission to be memorable and engaging.

The Music Video: A Visual Feast of Absurdity

The visual absurdity of the video, combined with the infectious soundtrack, created a perfect synergy that captivated audiences worldwide. It wasn't just a music video; it was an experience, a journey into a world of pure, unadulterated fun. The video's DIY aesthetic, despite its high production values, also contributed to its relatability and its ability to go viral organically.

September 2013, this electro-pop earworm, replete with nonsensical lyrics and a psychedelic music video, rapidly transcended its comedic origins to become a global phenomenon. This article delves into the origins, impact, and enduring legacy of this unique internet sensation, exploring why a song about a fox's imagined vocalizations captured the world's attention.

From Norwegian TV Skit to Global Chart-Topper

Hailing from Bærum, Norway, Ylvis – comprised of brothers Vegard and Bård Ylvisåker – were already established comedians and musicians in their home country. Known for their humorous performances and often elaborate music videos, they were approached by the Norwegian talk show "I kveld med Ylvis" (Tonight with Ylvis) to create a catchy song and accompanying music video for the upcoming fall season. The brief was intentionally vague: create something viral. Little did they know, they would deliver on that promise in a way that would redefine "viral" for a generation.

The core concept of "What Does the Fox Say?" was simple: to explore the hypothetical sounds a fox might make, beyond the commonly understood barks and yelps. The brothers, working with producers at Stargate, a Norwegian production team with a track record of global hits, embraced the absurd. They brainstormed a menagerie of bizarre sounds, from "Wa-pa-pa-pa-pa-pow!" to "Ring-ding-ding-ding-dingeringeding!" and the ever-iconic "Hatee-hatee-hatee-ho!" This playful, nonsensical approach, coupled with a driving beat and a surprisingly polished production, laid the groundwork for its unexpected success.

The Music Video: A Psychedelic Spectacle

No discussion of "The Fox" is complete without acknowledging the visual spectacle of its music video.
